

The Mystery of Silence

Be Still and Know
(Psalm 139:1-6)

You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar. You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways. Before a word is on my tongue you, Lord, know it completely. You hem me in behind and before, and you lay your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.

It is in silence that we allow God to work with us in that inward transformation. In silence we experience the revelation of God’s unconditional love and our personal worth to God. And in that experience we know that God accepts us, just as we are.

In silence the miracle of inner healing takes place. Visions of possibilities open. Empowerment for compassionate service is received. Oneness with the Divine is experienced.

In silence, the Holy Spirit guide us into those places within where hidden dreams and ideas wait to be revealed, trapped beneath our hurts and fears.
